Institutional Policy Scrutiny Committees (IPSC)

The Institutional Policy Scrutiny Committees (IPSC) at Agurchand Manmull Jain College was formed under the Chairpersonship of the Principal in the Academic Year 2023-2024 based on the approval from the management under the Policy Development Blueprint – 2024 (PDB-2024) for Government Aided, Self-Financing and Integrated Policies respectively. The establishment of these committees was a significant step towards ensuring the efficacy and compliance of institutional policies with the organizational goals and values.

The primary objective of forming the IPSC is to meticulously review, analyse, and provide recommendations on existing institutional policies, as well as on newly proposed policies as deemed necessary for the enhancement of the institution's functioning. Through rigorous scrutiny and thoughtful deliberations, the IPSC aims to foster a culture of transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement within the institution.

The members of the three committees for AY 2024-2025 are as below:
